Understand your reimbursement advice

Conditions: depending on the situation, you may find the following information:

Allowed amount: in case of ceilinged benefits, amount considered to calculate the reimbursement.

FCA threshold(s) crossed: several reimbursement rates have been applied to the bill because you have crossed a Costs Borne by Insured (FCA) of CHF 500 and/or CHF 3'000.

Paid to insured: the reimbursement has been made to the bank account designated for the insured person.

Paid to provider: the bill has been paid, in full, directly to the medical provider.

At your expense: this amount is not supported by the CHIS. In case of payment to the provider, you will receive separately an invoice to pay your participation.
